

NEW YORK BIRD LIST REPORTS 1992 AND 1995

Compiled by Berna and Stan Lincoln

Finally, the full report for the County Listing project we began in 1992 and picked up again in 1995. The long wait didn't seem to discourage too many of you: we had 61 reports for 1992 and 65 for 1995.

Manny Levine, strategically situated a few minutes from Jones Beach, still holds the highest Regional - 349 in Region 10 - list reported but Bob Spahn (Monroe), up on New York's "other coast," has tied Manny (Nassau) for the highest County total reported - 324. Fifteen others report Regional lists of at least 300 but no one else has reached that number in any county.

While Berna and Stan Lincoln were the first, and still the only, participants to report lists from all 62 counties in the state, Bill Ostrander (44) and Dave Russell (40) are getting close and Michael Bochnik and Bill Purcell (22), Paul DeBenedictis (21) and Carl Jaslowitz and David Prosser (20) have gotten into the spirit of things. Seven counties still have top lists under 100. Somebody must live in, or at least near, them!

No one has yet reached the threshold of 100 species in all ten Regions although Berna is closest, missing only Region 2.

Bob Connor, celebrating his 50th year of birding with a mighty big effort, reported 306 species in 1992 for a mighty big Annual List. Bob's wonderful narrative of his adventure was published in The Kingbird, March 1995.

Now that you know where the challenges lie, and can see from the reports that this game isn't for "hotshots" only, get ready to put your 1996 lists together. The 1996 report form will be in the January New York Birders.

An asterisk (*) by a name means that person resides in the County reported. In all reports, the numbers in the first column are for 1995 and those in the second column are for 1992.
